We think we have heard some person say that Rev G. A. Reeder is trying to induce citizens of this town to subscribe sufficient money to purchase and fluish the skeleton M. E. Church South. We think it would be a good plan for the people of this town to purchase said shell, fix it up and make of it a sort of town hall, in which preachers of every denomination might preach to their hearts content. Then, it could, as occasion required, be used for other purposes.

New Goods .- C. P. Head & Co. have rereived more new goods, consisting of coal oil, dress goods of every description, toys, which ought to have been here long before Christmas, and numerous other things.

Monny, with which to pay taxes, was in demand yesterday, it being the last day of grace. Great was the "rustling." The fact that, owing to an oversight of the late chief quartermaster, Gen Dana, the present chief Q. M., Col Rockwell, was unable to pay out something over $100,000 which was intended should be used here, as the money was placed to the credit of Gen Dana and will not e paid on the order of Co! Rockwell. This delayed contractors in meeting their obligations with the people, consequently, the "rustling" to meet the demands of the Territory and county.

Since our reference to the church building n Prescott, yesterday, we learn that Rev G. A. Reeder has been quite successful in getting subscriptions for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness on the building and finishing it; and as all sects and persuasions have shown a liberal disposition to aid in the undertaking, the church, when completed, will be open to ministers of the Gospel of all denominations. We hope that all who desire to see such an addition to our town as a respectable church will make, will, now it is settled that it is not to be secturian, give as their means will allow towards its comple-
